J. Reed Tuft

J. Reed Tuft, husband and father, died April 26, 1992.

He was born May 18, 1918, in Heber City, Utah, the son of J.C. and Florence Murdock Tuft. A graduate of Wasatch High School, Reed attended college at BYU, where he graduated in 1940. On Dec. 7, 1943, he was commissioned as an Ensign in the U.S. Navy. He was stationed in St. Albans, Long Island, where he worked in rehabilitation of combatants. He later was transferred to Tuxedo Park.

Reed graduated from the University of Utah Law School in 1946, and was the first graduate in the U.S. under the newly enacted GI Bill. He passed the Utah State Bar in 1947, and began a 43-year law career. Reed served as assistant service officer for the American Legion for the State of Utah. In 1948 he was appointed deputy county attorney for Salt Lake County, a position he held until December of 1952.

Reed was employed many years as a correspondent for the Salt Lake Tribune. He began his career at the age of 13, when he served as the Tribune's Heber/Wasatch County reporter. He phoned in his stories collect to the intermountain editor for 27 cents a line (a sum he felt guilty collecting). He continued work in various other facets of journalism from cityside and sports to front page byline.

In 1952, Reed was the Democratic nominee for district attorney, a position he claimed he lost to "Ike". Reed did much public service commission work, and was instrumental in organizing Barton & Bonanza Trucklines and Valley Bank. He served as legal counsel for Pepsi Cola. After World War II, Reed received an honorary membership in the Japanese-American Credit League for his legal efforts on behalf of Japanese-Americans. He was a former president and intermountain vice president of the 20/30 Club, where he initiated the Safety Sallies Program. Past member of Bonneville Kiwanis Club, and Willowcreek and Cottonwood Country Clubs.

In 1949, Reed married Barbara Larsen who passed away in 1971. In July of 1973, Reed married Patricia Gareau. Reed was an active member of St. Catherine of Sienna and St. Ambrose parishes of the Catholic Church, and a supporter of J.E. Cosgriff Memorial School.

He is survived by: His wife, Patricia; son, Jon Christian Tuft; daughters, Jody Kathryn Tuft and Mrs. David (Tamara) Hardy; grandchildren, Mary Emily, Melissa Jane, Megan Margaret, and Benjamin Tuft Hardy; sisters, Norma Ruud and Shirley Shafer, both Salt Lake City; Dawn Newey, Ogden. Preceded in death by his son, James Scott.

Funeral mass will be celebrated Thursday at 10:30 a.m., at St. Ambrose Catholic Church, 1975 So. 2300 East. Vigil service will be Wednesday, 7:30 p.m., at Neil O'Donnell & Sons Mortuary, 372 East 100 South, where friends may call from 6-7:30. Committal, Mt. Calvary Cemetery.
